

RISE ABOVE

Always reaching towards the skies, vines are hardy, resilient climbers that will leverage any surface in their quest to get sunlight. A full-grown plant is a formidable, colonizing force that grows like an arrow pointing heavenward. This picture is the inspiration for D'Vine Residences. Homogeneous, linear, vertical lines rising up from the ground, creating a vision of flowing contours that stretch to the sun in an almost endless flux.

BOLD, ARTISTIC STROKES

Minimalist, classic and linear. D'Vine Residences is timeless in its design. Soothing, earthy shades blending with sweeping vertical and horizontal lines that break the 46-storey tower into elongated rectangular blocks. The retail podium provides an additional lift that seems to thrust the building further skywards to create a vision of boldness amidst a colony of buildings. Adopting an inclusive approach, the commercial space creates engagement and connectivity with well-planned, open areas, pedestrian-friendly thoroughfares and well-designed facades.
